Cooperation Of The
Barry County Board of Commissioners
And the Barry County Clerk's Office

Barry County Web Site: www.barrycounty.org

This directory has been prepared by the County Clerk's Office through the courtesy of the Board of Commissioners. It is intended to acquaint all citizens with the many services available in Barry County and also with the officials charged with conducting the affairs of government from National to County, City, and Township and Village levels.

Appreciation should be given to Elizabeth Lapekes, Deputy County Clerk, for the many hours devoted to compiling and typing this directory.

The County Clerk's Office welcomes any suggestions you might have to make this directory more useful. We are dedicated to serving the people of the County and invite all citizens to come into the office at any time and we will attempt to answer any questions you may have.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF BARRY COUNTY

Barry County was organized by an act of the Legislature on March 15th, 1839.

First election was held the first Monday in April 1839.

First settler to take up land in Barry County was at Prairieville in 1835.

First school taught in Barry County was at Middleville in 1835.

First Circuit Court was held in Barry County May 1840's, at Hastings.

First courthouse was built in 1844, burned in 1846. This courthouse was rebuilt and used until the present courthouse and Jail were built in 1893.

First newspaper published in Hastings in 1851.

(From Potter's History of Barry County)

Barry County is located in Southern Michigan in the third row of counties. It is comprised of sixteen Townships: Assyria, Baltimore, Barry, Carlton, Castleton, Hastings, Hope, Irving, Johnstown, Maple Grove, Orangeville, Prairieville, Rutland, Thornapple, Woodland and Yankee Springs; one City, Hastings; also four incorporated Villages: Nashville, Middleville, Woodland, and Freeport.

Yankee Springs Recreation Area with a tract of almost 4,255 acres, and over three miles of frontage on Gun Lake, was developed by the National Park Service and is adjacent to the 10,700 acre State game area all of which is an outstanding attraction now maintained by the State Conservation Department in Barry County.

Charlton Park encompasses 332 acres. Most of the Park's flowing wells are contained. The park has picnic facilities, playground equipment, a beach and boat launch. The museum is free to Barry County residents showing proof of residency on all but Special Event days. The museum collection contains Native American and pioneer artifacts, which may be on display or in storage.
